Whats Bred In The Bone Cornish Trilogy 2 Robertson Davies
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out dramatically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sorrowfully on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime with a bag of prunes. He tells her all about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him if he has been skipped school that afternoon and went over to St. Petersburg to visit his Uncle Mark. Tom has sworn the boy to secrecy about his prunes.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiten the fence. Sam passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of meatloaf. Sam almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his toils.
